

Festive spirit in full swing at Horsham Golf

The festive spirit is in full swing at Horsham Golf with multiple events during the week and weekend. The weekend Turkey Trot, which was played with four clubs and a putter was won by Martin Jesty with 37 points edging out Captain Howard Mannion on countback.

Winner Martin Jesty (Centre) and Captain Howard Mannion (Far right)

Mixed match

The Seniors had a mixed greensomes match which was won by John Howard and Jenny Elliott with 38 points. Second place went to Duncan McSorland and Christine Dickenson on 37 and third to Carol Dell and John Neale with 36 points

Seniors Captain Alex Morrison-Cowan with Jenny Elliott and John Howard

Ladies

Horsham ladies played a team stableford with two scores counting on the odd holes and all three scores on the even holes. The comfortable winners with a splendid 81 points were Tessa Martin-Bird, Liz MacGregor and Christine Dickenson, followed by Captain Liz Myles, Sharon Johnston and Sue Craig with 76 points. This was followed by an excellent Christmas lunch and a raffle in aid of Know Dementia.

Winners Liz MacGregor, Tessa Martin-Bird and Christine Dickenson

Tuesday Seniors

The Tuesday Seniors played a stableford as the weather allowed them to play the Turkey Trot the previous week. The winner was Nigel Croy with 38pts followed by David Bingham on 37 just beating Martin Jesty on countback.

Wednesday Seniors

The final Turkey Trot was played as a stableford and the clear winner was Don Johnston with 40 points and a handicap cut of 2 shots as a Christmas present. Charlie Malsbury was second on 36, edging out Nairon Khan on countback.

Seniors Captain Alex Morrison-Cowan with winner Don Johnston